

1

2

Clinical Judgment in Nursing Education

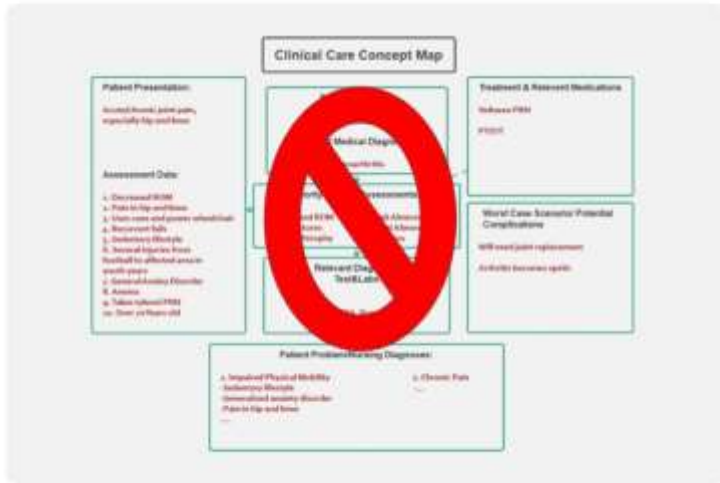

3

NCBSN CLINICAL JUDGMENT MODEL	CONCEPT MAPPING
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Measurable• Cognitive aspects of decision making• Organize complex information• Process information at high level• Use of nursing knowledge beyond explicit facts and rules• Analyze aspects of patient situation• Systematic approach	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Organize information• Connect ideas• Incorporate new learning with prior knowledge• Visualize processes for variety of situations• Solve problems by deconstructing issue• Determine student processing

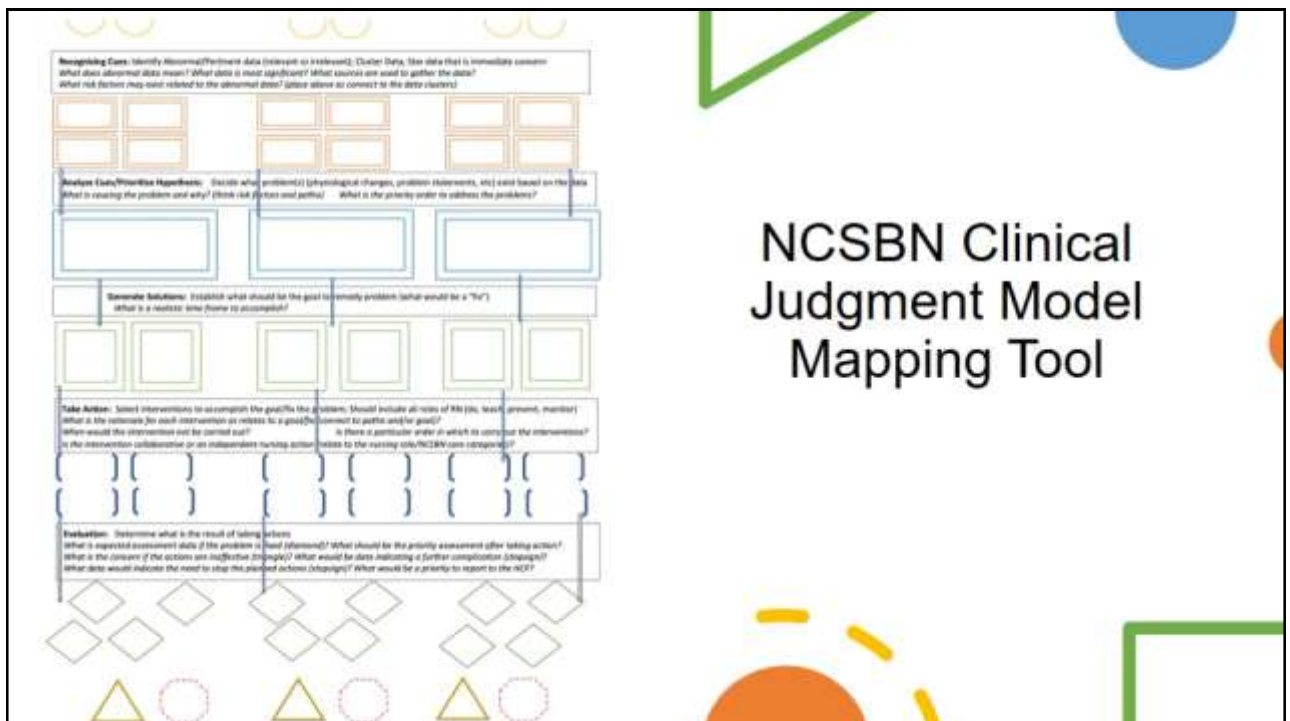

4

Clinical Judgment and Concept Mapping

How do students use concept maps or study for clinical judgment questions?

5

NCSBN Clinical Judgment Model Mapping Tool

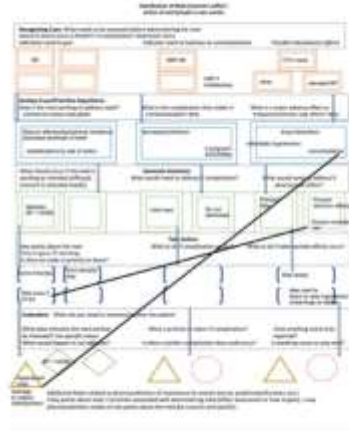

6

Classroom Uses

- In-Class Activities (compare/contrast)

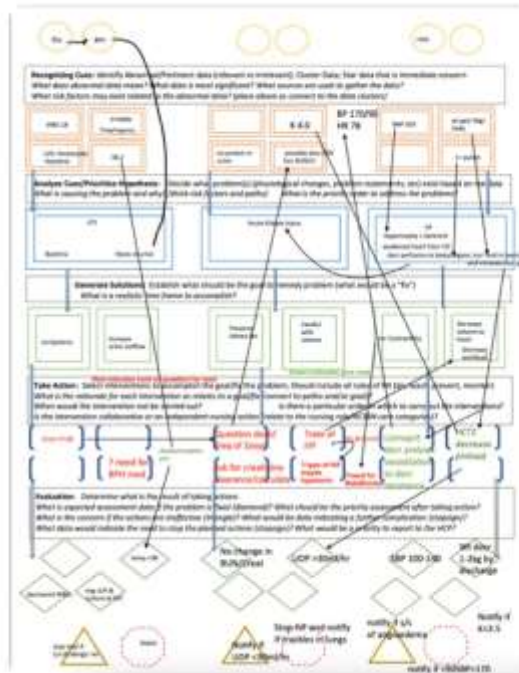

- Pharmacology Review

7

Case Study Assignment

8

Benefits to Use of the CJM Tool

Consistency across Curriculum

Reveal S/W/I in Clinical Judgment

Guide test prep/study using CJM steps

9

Tonya Willingham, EdD, MA, MSN, CNE, CNEcl

ABSN Academic Success Clinical Associate
Faculty at Duke University School of Nursing

Questions
Ideas
Collaboration

10