

ELNEC Project Copyright Permission

Updated: September 2024

- Disclaimer: The intent of this curriculum is to enhance palliative care by providing educational resources for nurses. Neither the End-of-Life Nursing Education Consortium (ELNEC) Project nor any supporting funding organizations endorse any of the medications, products, or treatments described, mentioned or discussed in this curriculum, nor make any representations concerning the efficacy, appropriateness or suitability of any particular therapy. Please note that this curriculum and the information contained herein are provided for educational reference purposes only. Treatment decisions should be made only after careful assessment of the status and needs of a particular case. In view of the possibility of human error or advances in medical knowledge, neither the ELNEC Project nor any supporting funding organizations warrant that the information contained herein is in every respect accurate or complete. They are neither responsible nor liable for any errors or omissions that may be found in such information or for the results obtained from the use of such information.
- Curriculum materials: Copyright for the ELNEC Project curriculum is jointly owned by City of Hope (COH) and the American Association of Colleges of Nursing (AACN). The copyright includes items in the syllabus not specifically attributed to other sources. COH and AACN agree that those who have completed the ELNEC Project training course are granted permission to duplicate and/or modify ELNEC materials for use in their facilities. These materials include content outlines, slides, and instructional resources. ELNEC materials may not be published, posted electronically or distributed outside of a course without prior approval by City of Hope. For approval please contact the ELNEC Project Office at elnec@coh.org
- Attribution: When using ELNEC curriculum materials in any form, COH and AACN require clear attribution to the program by third parties through use the following statement, which is to be displayed prominently in instructional materials:
The End-of-Life Nursing Education Consortium (ELNEC) Project is a national and international end-of-life/palliative care educational program administered by City of Hope (COH) designed to enhance palliative care in nursing. Materials are copyrighted by City of Hope and the American Association of Colleges of Nursing (AACN) and are used with permission.
- ELNEC Project resources attributed to others: The ELNEC curriculum contains some resources originally developed or copyrighted by others. These items are used with permission and the original source is clearly identified. ELNEC participants may duplicate and use these items as they appear in the ELNEC curriculum, for in person classes or similar direct instruction, and are expected to recognize the original author/source as cited in the ELNEC materials. These items may not be published, modified, reformatted, or used in other ways for non-ELNEC purposes without the permission of the original author/source.
- Exceptions. ELNEC copyright permission does not extend to the textbooks (Oxford Textbook of Palliative Nursing, 5th Edition, 2019 nor Advanced Practice Palliative Nursing, 2nd Edition, 2023) used in the course.
