

GNSA PhD-DNP Collaboration Grant 2024-2025

Scoring Rubric

	Excellent (4)	Good (3)	Fair (2)	Poor (1)
Demonstrates collaborative works that has potential to advance science or influence outcomes related to health care, nursing practice, and/or health policy.	The response demonstrates complete description of collaborative work with details demonstrating excellence in this area.	The response demonstrates collaborative work with some supplemental details included.	The response indicates some collaborative work with no supporting details.	The response does not demonstrate any collaborative work.
Demonstrates scholarly rigor and contributes to the profession.	The response demonstrates scholarly rigor with details demonstrating excellence in this area.	The response demonstrates some supplemental details in this area.	The response demonstrates little supporting details in this area.	The response does not address these criteria.
Exemplifies innovation in PhD-DNP collaboration and leadership in nursing practice.	The response demonstrates an innovative proposal with excellent supporting information.	The response demonstrates some innovative aspects in the proposal with some supporting information.	The response demonstrates little innovative aspects in the proposal with little supporting information	The response does not demonstrate innovation.
The personal statement addresses how the PhD-DNP team proposal contributes to current and future practice and career goals and addresses all criteria.	The response clearly addresses all criteria of the written statement with supporting information.	The response addresses some criteria of the written statement with some supporting information.	The response addresses few of the criteria of the written statement with little supporting information.	The response does not address the criteria of the written statement.
Well written	Clearly well written; no spelling or grammatical errors.	Well written – few technical issues or spelling errors.	Disjointed or poorly written	So poorly written it is difficult to ascertain meaning
Background & Significance Timely, significant, and noteworthy	Will make a significant contribution to multiple areas of academic nursing; timely topic	Some elements are significant and/or noteworthy	Little significance; will only be applicable to a small, select audience	Does not present anything new, noteworthy, or significant
Purpose & Conclusion Clearly stated purpose and objectives of the proposal	Demonstrates a clear purpose, objectives, and conclusion with strong supporting details.	Demonstrates purpose, objectives, and conclusion with some supporting details.	Demonstrates purpose, objectives, and conclusion with little supporting details.	Does not include a clear purpose, objectives, and conclusion.

Total Score: _____ /30